THE PARLIAMENT FOR CAYMAN BRAC AND LITTLE CAYMAN

PART 1

CONSTITUENCY ASSISTANTS

1. Constituency assistants shall be appointed in accordance with paragraph 4.
2. (1) Each elected Member of the Parliament is entitled to the services of a constituency assistant as follows —
 - (a) in the case of an elected Member of the Parliament who is a Minister, to two full time constituency assistants and one part time constituency assistant; and
 - (b) in the case of other elected Members of Parliament, one full time constituency assistant and one part time constituency assistant.
- (2) For the purposes of this Schedule —
 - (a) a full time constituency assistant is a person who is contracted to work for such normal hours between 37 ½ and 40 hours per week as may be agreed and consistent with the Personnel Regulations (2022 Revision); and
 - (b) a part time constituency assistant is a person who is contracted to work for such proportion of the normal hours for a full time constituency assistant as may be agreed and consistent with the Personnel Regulations (2022 Revision).
3. A constituency assistant shall be a contractor of the Commission and shall hold office pursuant to the terms of a contract for services with the Commission.
4. Remuneration under a constituency assistant's contract shall include salary and pension at such rates as may be prescribed by regulations and health benefits similar to those provided to public officers under the Public Service Management Act (2018 Revision).
5. Subject to paragraph 6, the Chief Officer, acting on the advice of the Member of the Parliament for an electoral district, shall appoint constituency assistants for that electoral district.
6. The duties and responsibilities of a constituency assistant shall be specified in the contract for services by the Chief Officer, acting on the advice of the Member of the Parliament on whose advice the constituency assistant was appointed.

7. The appointment of a constituency assistant shall cease —
- (a) on one month’s notice by the constituency assistant, or by the Chief Officer acting on the advice of the Member of the Parliament on whose advice the appointment was made or for just cause without notice;
 - (b) on the date on which the resignation of the constituency assistant takes effect;
 - (c) if the Member of the Parliament who advised the appointment of the constituency assistant ceases to be a Member of the Parliament, other than by a dissolution of the Parliament, on the day of the cessation of that membership of Parliament;
 - (d) after a dissolution of the Parliament, on nomination day, if the Member who advised the appointment is not nominated for election to the Parliament for the same electoral district; or
 - (e) after a dissolution of the Parliament, on polling day if the Member who advised the appointment is nominated but is not elected to Parliament.
8. A constituency assistant whose employment is terminated by the Chief Officer under paragraph 7(a) shall receive a termination allowance as may be prescribed by regulations.
9. Any person employed as a constituency assistant immediately before the commencement of this amending Act shall be treated for all purposes as if the appointment had been made as provided by this amending Act from the date of the appointment.
10. For the purposes of this Schedule, the words “this amending Act” means the Parliament (Management) Act, 2020 as amended by this Act.

PART 2

CONSTITUENCY ALLOWANCE FOR MEMBERS OF THE PARLIAMENT; ALLOWANCES FOR THE OFFICES OF THE LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION AND FOR MEMBERS OF THE PARLIAMENT FOR CAYMAN BRAC AND LITTLE CAYMAN

Constituency Allowance

1. (1) A constituency allowance covers payment for the costs of maintaining a constituency office in order to facilitate access to constituents and such costs include —
- (a) utilities of a constituency office;
 - (b) supplies for a constituency office; and

- (c) the general maintenance of a constituency office.
- (2) The constituency allowance is $5,000 per month for each elected Member of the Parliament.

Executive Allowance for the Premier

- 2. The Premier shall receive an executive allowance of $5,000 per month.

Executive Allowance for the Leader of the Opposition

- 3. The Leader of the Opposition shall receive an executive allowance of $3,500 per month.

Allowance for Cayman Brac and Little Cayman Representatives

- 4. (1) There are two components to the allowance for Cayman Brac and Little Cayman Representatives and the allowance is $5,000 per month.
- (2) The two components and their corresponding maximum amounts per month are as follows —
 - (a) accommodation - $2,500; and
 - (b) transportation - $2,500.

Severance

- 5. Each Member of the Parliament who does not stand for re-election or, having stood for re-election, is not elected at the next election, shall be entitled to a severance payment equal to three months of the salary paid to that Member under Schedule 1 as at the date of that election and the payment does not include any duty allowances under Schedule 1 or any allowances permitted under this Schedule.”

Passed by the Parliament the 8th day of June, 2022.

Hon. W. McKeeva Bush
Speaker

Zena Merren-Chin
Clerk of the Parliament
