PART 2 – Establishment, Functions and Powers of the Special Economic Zone Authority

Establishment of the Special Economic Zone Authority

3. (1) There is hereby established an authority to be known as the Special Economic Zone Authority for the purpose of exercising the functions specified in this Law.
- (2) The Authority shall comprise the following members —
- (a) a Chairperson appointed by the Cabinet;
 - (b) a Deputy Chairperson appointed by the Cabinet;
 - (c) four persons from the private sector appointed by the Cabinet; and
 - (d) the following ex officio members —
 - (i) Director or the designate of the Director;
 - (ii) Director of WORC or the designate of the Director of WORC; and
 - (iii) Director of Customs and Border Control or the designate of the Director of Customs and Border Control.
- (3) Subject to this section, the constitution and procedure of the Authority shall be in accordance with Schedule 1.

Secretariat

4. (1) The department of Government known as the Department of Commerce and Investment shall be the Secretariat to the Authority.
- (2) The Secretariat shall —
- (a) be responsible for the day to day administration of the Authority;
 - (b) to the extent of the authority delegated in writing to the Secretariat by the Authority, be responsible for carrying out the functions of the Authority;
 - (c) record and keep the minutes of all meetings, proceedings and decisions of the Authority; and
 - (d) act as the primary processing centre through which a special economic zone enterprise can channel all of the applications of the special economic zone enterprise for permits and facilities that are not handled directly by the Authority.
- (3) The minutes to be kept pursuant to subsection (2)(c) include any electronic record or transcript of votes or decisions made during a meeting which takes place by conference telephone, computer or similar method facilitating real time communication between the persons attending the Board meeting or committee meeting.

Functions of the Authority

5. (1) The functions of the Authority are to —

- (a) advise the Minister on all aspects of the establishment of special economic zones;
 - (b) implement the policies and programmes of the Government with regard to special economic zones;
 - (c) identify and map areas to be designated as special economic zones;
 - (d) examine and process applications for the establishment of special economic zones and issue relevant approvals;
 - (e) examine and process applications for trade certificates;
 - (f) repealed by section 5 of the Special Economic Zones (Amendment) Law, 2016 [Law 5 of 2016];
 - (g) maintain current data on the performance in each special economic zone;
 - (h) enforce within a special economic zone compliance with customs procedures and other requirements for preventing the unauthorised use of a special economic zone;
 - (i) enforce compliance with the financial services procedures and other requirements for preventing the unauthorised use of approved special economic zone activities;
 - (j) suspend or revoke the trade certificate of a special economic zone enterprise which is in contravention of this Law, the Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) or any other law in force in the Islands;
 - (k) do all such other acts as may be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objective of the Authority or the exercise of its functions under this Law;
 - (l) with respect to the partners, directors of and any person who has a beneficial interest in, partnerships or companies in the Special Economic Zone, prescribe the manner in which due diligence —
 - (i) requirements are to be satisfied; and
 - (ii) investigations are to be conducted; and
 - (m) specify the procedure by which applications are to be submitted to the Authority for permission to conduct special economic zone business in the Special Economic Zone.
- (2) The Authority shall, consistent with the performance of its duties under this Law, consult with departments and agencies of the Government having duties, aims or objects related to those of the Authority.
- (3) The Authority shall, to the extent that information is required and requested in writing by a Supervisory Authority or competent authority for anti-money laundering, counter terrorist financing or counter-proliferation financing

- purposes, share the required information with the relevant Supervisory Authority or competent authority.
- (4) The Authority may —
- (a) of its own volition; or
 - (b) upon request by a Supervisory Authority or competent authority, through its Secretariat, share or provide any information required for anti-money laundering, counter terrorist financing or counter-proliferation financing purposes in accordance with this section.
- (5) Where information is shared or provided in accordance with subsection (3), unless the recipient is bound by a statutory duty of confidentiality in relation to the information received, the recipient of such information shall —
- (a) only use the information for the purpose for which it was shared or provided;
 - (b) only retain the information for as long as is necessary to carry out the purpose for which it was shared or provided;
 - (c) not disclose the information, without the prior consent of the Authority, for any purpose other than the purpose for which it was shared or provided; and
 - (d) provide confirmation in writing that the recipient shall not disclose the information, without the prior consent of the Authority, for any purpose other than the purpose for which it was shared or provided.

Committees and special meetings

- 5A. (1) The Authority may appoint committees to assist the Authority in exercising the functions of the Authority under section 5(1)(e) of this Law and shall appoint the persons the Authority considers fit to be members of the committees.
- (2) The Chairperson may designate a member of any committee appointed under subsection (1) to act as secretary to the committee and that member shall perform the duties that the committee may determine.
- (3) The Authority may, by instrument in writing, delegate to a committee appointed by the Authority under subsection (1) the functions, other than suspension or revocation of trade certificates, that the Authority considers fit.
- (4) A committee to which functions are delegated under subsection (3) shall perform the functions delegated and a decision of the committee is deemed to be a decision of the Authority.
- (5) A person appointed to be a member of the Board or a committee may by conference telephone, computer or similar method facilitating real time communication between the persons attending the Board meeting or committee meeting, participate in a meeting of the Board or committee.

- (6) Where necessary, for the purposes of constituting a quorum, the participation of a person at a meeting, in the manner specified in subsection (5) is considered to be and accepted as the person's attendance at the meeting.

Powers of the Authority

- 6. (1) The Authority shall have the power to facilitate —
- (a) the procurement, management, reclamation and disposal of land and other property for the purposes of a special economic zone;
 - (b) the carrying out of development works and other building operations in, on or in respect of a special economic zone; and
 - (c) the preservation, maintenance, regulation, management and improvement of a special economic zone and the provision of additional facilities to it.
- (1A) The Authority may co-opt any person to attend any meeting of the Authority at which it is proposed to deal with a particular matter, for the purpose of assisting or advising the Authority but a co-opted person does not have the right to vote at the meeting to which the person was co-opted.
- (1B) The Authority may delegate to the Secretariat —
- (a) the Authority's function of —
 - (i) examining and processing applications with respect to the approval and refusal of applications for renewal; and
 - (ii) amending the applicant's trade certificate in accordance with section 23 of the Act; and
 - (b) the Authority's duties under subsection (1C).
- (1C) The Authority shall —
- (a) whenever it thinks fit, examine, by way of the receipt of regular annual returns, or in such other manner as it thinks necessary, the affairs or business of any special economic zone enterprise for the purpose of satisfying itself that the trade certificate and this Law are being complied with; and
 - (b) assist in the investigation of any offence against the laws of the Islands which it has reasonable grounds to believe has, or may have, been committed by a special economic zone enterprise or by any of its controllers, directors or senior officers acting in an official capacity.
- (1D) In the performance of its functions under this Law, the Authority or the Secretariat to which the Authority's functions are delegated is entitled at all reasonable times to request to have access to such books, records, vouchers, documents and any other information from the special economic zone enterprise, as the Authority may reasonably require.

- (1E) A person who fails to comply with any requirement or request of the Authority under this section commits an offence and is liable —
- (a) on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars; or
 - (b) on conviction on indictment to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars, and if the offence for which the person is convicted continues after conviction that person commits a further offence and is liable to a fine of ten thousand dollars for every day on which the offence is so continued.
- (1F) A person who, knowingly or recklessly, furnishes any information, provides any explanation or makes any statement to the Authority which is false or misleading in a material particular commits an offence and is liable —
- (a) on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars and to imprisonment for six months; or
 - (b) on conviction on indictment to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for five years.
- (2) No other provision of this Law by virtue of which any power is exercisable by the Authority shall be construed as limiting the effect of this section.

Additional powers of the Authority

6A. Where the Authority is of the opinion that —

- (a) a special economic zone enterprise is carrying on business in a manner detrimental to the public interest;
 - (b) a special economic zone enterprise has failed to comply with a condition of its trade certificate;
 - (c) a special economic zone enterprise or its controller, director or senior officer is not a fit and proper person;
 - (d) regulatory, disciplinary or criminal action has been taken against the special economic zone enterprise or a person holding a position as a controller, director or senior officer of a special economic zone enterprise;
 - (e) a person acquiring control or ownership of a special economic zone enterprise is not a fit and proper person;
 - (f) a special economic zone enterprise or its controller, director or senior officer has failed to comply with any requests made by the Authority under section 6; or
 - (g) a special economic zone enterprise has contravened this Law or the regulations,
- the Authority may —
- (i) require the special economic zone enterprise immediately to take steps to rectify the matter;

- (ii) revoke or suspend the trade certificate issued to the special economic zone enterprise, in accordance with section 26;
- (iii) impose conditions or further conditions upon the special economic zone enterprise and may amend or revoke any such condition;
- (iv) require a controller or shareholder of a special economic zone enterprise who is not fit and proper to divest the controller's or shareholder's respective shares;
- (v) require the substitution or removal of any controller, director, or senior officer of the special economic zone enterprise;
- (vii) impose administrative penalties on the special economic zone enterprise for contravention of this Law; or
- (viii) require such action to be taken by the special economic zone enterprise as the Authority considers necessary.

Duty of confidentiality

7. (1) The fact and any particulars of, or relating to, any matter falling for consideration by, or the decision of, the Authority shall be treated as confidential by each member of the Authority and the member shall not disclose any such fact or particulars otherwise than in the proper performance of that member's duties under this Law or in compliance with the order of a court.
- (2) The failure by a member to comply with subsection (1) constitutes sufficient ground for the termination of that member's appointment.
- (3) A member who fails to comply with subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars.
- (4) Any allegation of a breach of subsection (1) shall be fully investigated by a constable of the rank of Inspector or above.

Remuneration

8. A member of the Authority other than a public officer is entitled to receive such remuneration in respect of each meeting attended as determined by the Cabinet from time to time.

Protection from liability and indemnification

9. (1) A member of the Authority shall not be liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of that member's functions, responsibilities, powers and duties under this Law unless it is shown that the act or omission was in bad faith.
- (2) The Government shall indemnify a member of the Authority against all claims, damages, costs, charges or expenses incurred by that member in the discharge or purported discharge of that member's functions, responsibilities, powers and duties under this Law, except claims, damages, costs, charges or expenses caused by the bad faith of that member.

PART 3 – Special Economic Zones

Declaration of special economic zone

10. (1) The Cabinet may by Order, on the recommendation of the Authority, declare a parcel or parcels of land, areas or locations in the Islands to be the whole or part of a special economic zone and such Order may add to or remove any parcel or parcels of land, areas or locations in the Islands from such special economic zone.
- (2) An Order made under subsection (1) shall —
- (a) specify the name of the special economic zone;
 - (b) specify the name of the developer of the special economic zone;
 - (c) define the geographical limits of the special economic zone; and
 - (d) specify the types of special economic zone business authorised to be carried on in the special economic zone.
- (3) This section shall not prejudice the right of any person having an interest in any lands within the special economic zone.

Repealed

11. Repealed by section 7 of the Special Economic Zones (Amendment) Act, 2020 [Act 62 of 2020].

PART 4 – Special Economic Zone Development and Operation

Declaration of developer and benefits

12. (1) The Cabinet may by Order declare a person to be a developer for the purpose of developing and operating a special economic zone under this Law.
- (2) An Order made under subsection (1) shall specify —
- (a) the name of the special economic zone which the developer is authorised to develop and operate;
 - (b) any conditions imposed on the developer; and
 - (c) any benefits other than those specified in the relevant Schedules.
- (3) A developer and its subsidiaries shall be entitled to the benefits specified in the relevant Schedules to this Law, relating to the special economic zone specified in the Order.

- (4) Neither a developer nor any of its subsidiaries shall be deemed to be a public authority, a statutory body or authority, or a body or entity of Government, for any purposes.

PART 5 – Trade Certificate

Requirement for trade certificate

13. (1) A person shall not carry on a special economic zone business within a special economic zone and the benefits described in this Part and the relevant Schedules shall not accrue unless the person holds a valid trade certificate for that purpose under this Law.
- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of four years, or to both.

Application for trade certificate

14. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person that is an exempted company or an exempted limited partnership that is desirous of carrying on a special economic zone business in a special economic zone shall submit an application to the Authority for a trade certificate in accordance with this Law and the Regulations.
- (1A) Where an exempted company or exempted limited partnership that is already registered as an exempted company or exempted limited partnership in the Islands applies to be registered as a Special Economic Zone entity, the change in registration of the exempted company or exempted limited partnership to registration in the Special Economic Zone shall in accordance with section 64 of the Immigration (Transition) Act (2022 Revision) be a change of employer for an employee of the exempted company or exempted limited partnership, who holds a work permit.
- (1B) An applicant under subsection (1) shall be a fit and proper person.
- (1C) The controller, beneficial owner, director and senior officer of the applicant referred to in subsection (1B) shall be a fit and proper person.
- (1D) In determining whether a person is a fit and proper person, the Authority shall have regard to the person's honesty, integrity and reputation.
- (1E) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1D), regard may be had to the previous conduct and activities in business or financial matters of the person in question and, in particular, to any evidence that the person has —
- (a) committed an offence involving money laundering, terrorist financing, proliferation financing, fraud or other dishonesty or violence;

- (b) contravened any provision made by or under any enactment designed for protecting members of the public against financial loss due to —
 - (i) dishonesty, incompetence or malpractice by persons concerned in the provision of services or the management of companies or other legal entities; or
 - (ii) the conduct of discharged or undischarged bankrupts; or
 - (c) engaged in any business practices appearing to be deceitful or oppressive or otherwise improper (whether lawful or not) or which discredit the person's method of conducting business.
- (1F) The Authority may issue guidelines for the determination of fitness and propriety under subsection (1D).
- (2) An application submitted under subsection (1) shall be in the prescribed form and shall be accompanied by —
- (a) evidence that the person is —
 - (i) an exempted company that is registered as a special economic zone company; or
 - (ii) an exempted limited partnership,in good standing;
 - (b) a non-refundable prescribed application fee to be paid to the general revenue of the Islands; and
 - (c) such other information or particulars as may be prescribed or required by the Authority.
- (3) Notwithstanding section 15, where an incomplete application is submitted to the Authority under subsection (1), the Authority may require an applicant to complete and re-submit the application, subject to payment of the prescribed re-submission fee to the general revenue of the Islands.
- (4) A person shall not —
- (a) in relation to any application submitted pursuant to this section; or
 - (b) in relation to any information or particulars that the person is required to furnish pursuant to this section,
- make any representation or statement that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.
- (5) A person who contravenes subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of one year, or to both.
- (6) Where an applicant for a trade certificate is a person who commits an offence under subsection (4), the Authority may refuse to grant a trade certificate to the applicant for a period of five years commencing from the date of conviction for the offence.

Request for further information

- 15. (1) Where an application is submitted to the Authority pursuant to section 14, the Authority may, within five working days of the receipt of an application, request additional information from the applicant for the purpose of considering the application.
- (2) Where the Authority makes a request for information pursuant to subsection (1), the applicant shall submit that information within fourteen days of the request or within a further period of time granted and specified in writing by the Authority.
- (3) The Authority shall not unreasonably refuse to give a further time period under subsection (2).

Grant or refusal of trade certificate

- 16. (1) Where an application is submitted pursuant to section 14, the Authority shall within seven days of the application being made or additional information being received pursuant to section 15, as the case may be, grant or refuse the trade certificate and notify the applicant of the grant or the refusal and shall give the reasons in writing for a refusal.
- (2) The Authority shall not approve a trade certificate application where the Authority considers that —
- (a) the grant of the application is not in the public interest, including where it presents a high level of reputational risk for the jurisdiction;
 - (b) the applicant for a trade certificate is not a fit and proper person;
 - (c) the applicant has contravened section 14(4); or
 - (d) the applicant for a trade certificate has a controller, beneficial owner, director, senior officer or shareholder that is not a fit and proper person.

Issuance of trade certificate

- 17. (1) A trade certificate granted under section 16 shall —
- (a) be issued in the prescribed form;
 - (b) be issued on payment of the prescribed trade certificate fee to the general revenue of the Islands;
 - (c) specify the period of validity of the trade certificate;
 - (d) specify the special economic zone business that the special economic zone enterprise may conduct within the special economic zone;

- (e) specify the name of the special economic zone in which the special economic zone enterprise is authorised to carry on the special economic zone business;
 - (f) specify the address of the premises from which the special economic zone business is to be carried on; and
 - (g) specify all terms and conditions, if any, in addition to those provided for in this Law or the Regulations, under which the trade certificate is granted.
- (2) The Authority shall, to the greatest possible extent consistent with the performance of its duties under this Law, consult with departments and agencies of the Government having duties or having aims or objects related to those of the Authority.

Benefits of special economic zone enterprise and conditions

- 18. (1) A special economic zone enterprise shall be entitled to the benefits set out in the relevant Schedule relating to the special economic zone specified in the trade certificate issued to that special economic zone enterprise.
- (1A) A special economic zone enterprise shall comply with all laws in force in the Islands, notwithstanding the benefits referred to in subsection (1) and any other exceptions specified in this Law.
- (2) A special economic zone enterprise shall have as its principal purpose the carrying on of business mainly outside the Islands.
- (3) A special economic zone enterprise shall not trade in the Islands with any person, firm or corporation except for purposes that are ancillary to, or in furtherance of, its business carried on outside the Islands, but nothing in this section shall be construed so as to prevent such a special economic zone enterprise from effecting and concluding contracts in the Islands and exercising in the Islands all of its powers necessary or expedient for the carrying on of its business outside the Islands.

Price control

- 19. Price controls imposed under any Law in force in the Islands shall not apply to the sale of any article, goods or services sold or supplied by a special economic zone enterprise from or within a special economic zone in the course of carrying on special economic zone business.

Investments and securities

- 20. (1) Restrictions shall not be placed on the transfer of any investment in or by a special economic zone enterprise within a special economic zone and a special economic zone enterprise shall not be restricted to investing in any other special economic zone enterprise.

- (2) Notwithstanding any Law in force in the Islands to the contrary, a non-Caymanian may own, hold, freely transfer, securitise, finance, raise security or list the legal or beneficial title of any or all of that person's equity in (and up to one hundred per cent of the equity in) any development company or special economic zone enterprises.

Prohibition on transfer or assignment of trade certificate

21. A special economic zone enterprise shall not transfer or assign a trade certificate to any other person.

Validity of trade certificate and annual fee

22. (1) Subject to the voluntary surrender of a trade certificate under section 25 or suspension or revocation of a trade certificate under section 26, a trade certificate shall be valid for the period specified in the trade certificate.
- (2) A special economic zone enterprise shall, annually on or before every 31st January of every year after the first issuance of the trade certificate, pay to the general revenue of the Islands the prescribed annual fee in respect of the trade certificate.
- (3) A special economic zone enterprise who fails to pay the prescribed annual fee by the date specified in subsection (2) shall pay to the general revenue of the Islands a surcharge not exceeding one-twelfth of the prescribed annual fee for every month or part of a month that the prescribed annual fee is not paid.
- (4) If the prescribed annual fee referred to in subsection (2) is not paid, the unpaid prescribed annual fee may be sued for by the Government by action as a civil debt and the Authority may require, and the court may order, the payment of any surcharge accrued under subsection (3) in respect of the late payment of the prescribed annual fee.

Amendment to trade certificate

23. On application made by a special economic zone enterprise in the prescribed form and on payment of the prescribed amendment fee, the Authority may amend the applicant's trade certificate, among other things to —
 - (a) change or include additional addresses or premises at which the special economic zone business may be carried on;
 - (b) change the name of the special economic zone enterprise; or
