CAYMAN ISLANDSNational Conservation Law, 2013*MARINE CONSERVATION REGULATIONS*(2004 Revision)*Citation

1. These regulations may be cited as the Marine Conservation Regulations (2004 Revision).

Definition

2. In these regulations -

“Law” means the Marine Conservation Law (2003 Revision) and its subordinate legislation;

Seizure, disposal, etc., of marine life caught in contravention of Law

3. A Fisheries Officer, in any place in which under section 5(4) he may lawfully search any person, may seize any marine life which he has reason to believe has been caught in the commission of an offence or which is possessed in contravention of the Law, and he may, in his discretion —
 - (a) return such marine life to its natural habitat;
 - (b) retain it for production in evidence; or
 - (c) dispose of it in any manner he deems expedient:

Provided that, if such disposal is effected by way of sale, the net proceeds thereof shall be paid into the revenues of the Islands.

Badges, insignia and identification cards

4. (1) The badges and insignia prescribed in the First Schedule shall be worn and displayed by Fisheries Officers whenever they are performing their duties as such.
- (2) The Board shall issue to each Fisheries Officer an identification card in the form set out in the Second Schedule, which card shall remain the property of the Board. Each Fisheries Officer shall carry his identification card with him whenever performing his duties as such and shall, on reasonable demand being made by any person, produce such card for the inspection of that person.

Forms

5. Letters of appointment of Fisheries Officers and the forms to be used in the application for and granting of licences and authorisation under the Law are prescribed in the Third and Fourth Schedules respectively.

Fees

6. Fees to be charged in connection with licences and authorisation under the Law are prescribed in the Fifth Schedule.

Penal

7. Whoever resists or obstructs a Fisheries Officer in the discharge of any duty under the Law is guilty of an offence.

No-diving zones

8. (1) The areas described in the Sixth Schedule are designated as no-diving zones.
- (2) Scuba diving in a no-diving zone is prohibited.

Damage to coral reef

9. (1) Whoever anchors any vessel exceeding twenty feet in length or a commercial vessel, or allows any of such vessels to be anchored, in such a manner that damage is caused to the coral by an anchor, chain or any similar contrivance, is guilty of an offence.
- (2) In this regulation —
“commercial vessel” means a vessel which is for hire for the carriage of passengers or which is carrying passengers as part of a charter or other commercial venture.

FIRST SCHEDULEBadges and Insignia*(Regulation 4)

The following are the prescribed badges and insignia for the purpose of regulation 4 —

- (a) badges or insignia prescribed to be displayed or worn by game wardens under the Animals Law (2003 Revision); and
- (b) flags of the dimensions and colour indicated below when displayed on any vessel or vehicle.
