Notes about the Parental Responsibility Agreement

Read these notes before you make the Agreement.

About the Parental Responsibility Agreement:

The making of this agreement will affect the legal position of the mother and the father. You should both seek legal advice before you make the Agreement.

When filling in the Agreement:

Please use black ink (the agreement will be copied). Put the name of one child only. If the father is to have parental responsibility for more than one child, fill in a separate form for each child. Do not sign the Agreement.

When you have filled in the Agreement:

Take the agreement to a Justice of the Peace or a Notary Public who will witness your signature and sign the certificate of the witness. If no Justice of the Peace or Notary Public is available, then the Clerk of the Court may witness your signature. An attorney-at-law cannot witness your signature.

To the mother: When you make the declaration you will have to prove that you are the child's mother, so take to the Grand Court the child's full birth certificate. You will also need evidence of your identity showing a photograph and signature (for example, a driver's licence, passport or voters identification). Please note that the child's birth certificate will not be accepted as sufficient proof of your identity.

To the father: You will need evidence of your identity showing a photograph and signature (for example, a driver's licence, passport or voters identification) and proof of your parental status.

When the Certificate has been signed and witnessed:

Make 2 copies of the Agreement form. You do not need to copy these notes. Take, or send, this form and the copies to the Grand Court.

The Clerk of the Court will record the Agreement and keep this form. The copies will be stamped and sent back to each parent at the address on the Agreement. The Agreement will not take effect until it has been received and recorded at the Grand Court.

Ending the Agreement:

Once a parental responsibility agreement has been made it can only end-

- (a) by an order of the court made on the application of any person who has parental responsibility for the child;
- (b) by an order of the court made on the application of the child with permission of the court; or
- (c) when the child attains the age of eighteen.

Notes about the Step-Parent Parental Responsibility Form:

Read these notes before you make the Agreement

About the Step-Parent Parental Responsibility Agreement:

The making of this agreement will affect the legal position of the parent(s) and the step-parent. You should seek legal advice before you make the Agreement.

When filling in the Agreement:

Please use black ink (the agreement will be copied). Put the name of one child only. If the step-parent is to have parental responsibility for more than one child, fill in a separate form for each child. Do not sign the agreement.

When you have filled in the Agreement:

Take the agreement to a Justice of the Peace or a Notary Public who will witness your signature and sign the certificate of the witness. If no Justice of the Peace or Notary Public is available, then the Clerk of the Court of the Grand Court may witness your signature. An attorney-at-law cannot witness your signature.

To Parent A and the other Parent with parental responsibility:

When you make the declaration you will have to prove that you have parental responsibility for the child. You should therefore take with you to the court one of the following documents:

- (a) the child's full birth certificate;
- (b) a marriage certificate to show that the parents were married to each other at the time of birth or subsequently;
- (c) a court order granting parental responsibility;
- (d) a registered Parental Responsibility Agreement Form between the child's mother and father.

You will also require evidence of your (both parents') identity showing a photograph and signature (for example, a driver's licence, passport or voters identification). (Please note that the child's birth certificate cannot be accepted as sufficient proof of your identity.)

To the step-parent:

When you make the declaration you will have to prove that you are married to a parent of the child, so take to the court your marriage certificate.

You will also need evidence of your identity showing a photograph and signature (for example, a driver's licence, passport or voters identification).

When the certificate has been signed and witnessed:

Make sufficient copies of the Agreement Form for each person who has signed the form. You do not need to copy these notes.

Take, or send, the original form and the copies to the Grand Court.

The Court will record the agreement and retain the original form. The copies will be stamped with the seal of the court and sent back to every person with parental responsibility who has signed the Agreement Form and to the step-parent. The Agreement will not take effect until it has been received and recorded at the Grand Court.

Ending the Agreement:

Once a step-parent parental responsibility agreement has been made it can only end:

- (a) by an order of the court made on the application of any person who has parental responsibility for the child;
- (b) by an order of the court made on the application of the child with permission of the court; or
- (c) when the child reaches the age of eighteen.

Made in Cabinet on the 28th day of August, 2012.

Kim Bullings
Clerk of the Cabinet.

Laid in the Legislative Assembly on the 5th day of November, 2012, in accordance with section 95(2) of the Children Law, 2003.

Zena Merren-Chin
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
